

TWO PUBLIC MEETINGS SCHEDULED FOR CURRENT BUS ROUTE IMPROVEMENTS

ROCKINGHAM: Two public meetings are scheduled for The Current's recommended improvements to four of its bus routes that serve Springfield, Bellows Falls, and Ludlow.

The meetings will be held at The Current's facility, on Thursday June 8, at 706 Rockingham Road, Rockingham, Vermont at 12:00 pm and 6:00 pm. Free transportation can be arranged by calling The Current at 460-7433.

The Current has been studying schedule changes for over a year on Routes #1 (Springfield Intown), #2 (Bellows Falls Intown), #55 (Bellows Falls to Springfield), and #57 (Bellows Falls to Ludlow). The company drafted a route improvement plan and a comment card for responses in coordination with the Vermont Agency of Transportation (VTrans), transit consultant Steadman Hill, and the SWRPC. Deadline for public input to the plan is June 16th at 5:00 pm.

The plan and comments card are available online at <http://crtransit.org/bus-information/route-improvement-plan/> ; by calling the Current at 802-460-7433, extension 201; and from drivers on the routes being studied.
